This report includes disgorgements of stale-dated checks to the US Treasury. The ending balance accurately reflects the remaining funds available to the committee. The committee anticipates submitting a termination plan to the FEC. The plan will identify intended uses of remaining funds; such uses include payment of bank fees, payment of legal fees related to closedown, payment of compliance costs for records retention, records disposal and reporting services, and payment of charitable donations/political contributions.. Upon approval, the committee will execute disbursements to dispose of the funds and subsequently file a zero-balance final report.
