Mr. Daniel Scharfenberger
Office of the Honorable Thomas H. Kean
251 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Scharfenberger:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Las Vegas, Nevada, scheduled for March 6 to 8, 2026, sponsored by Republican Main Street Partnership.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman

4. List of All House Members and Employees with Explanation of Why the Individual Was Invited:

Rep. Jefferson Shreve (IN-06)

Rep. Shreve was invited because the agenda features Cummins in Columbus, Indiana, and C-I-T in Richmond, Indiana, two manufacturers located in his district that anchor the region's advanced manufacturing economy. He will see how off-road engine technology, customized equipment systems, and data-enabled construction tools are transforming job sites nationwide. The tour also connects his district's employers to national leaders like Caterpillar, Volvo, and Link-Belt. The working lunch on repair access, uptime, and cybersecurity reinforces how policy impacts Indiana manufacturers.

Jeff Bishop, Chief of Staff (IN-06)

Mr. Bishop was invited to better understand how federal policy affects Cummins in Columbus and C-I-T in Richmond, two major employers in Rep. Shreve's district. The agenda highlights diagnostic tools, autonomous equipment, and AI-enabled safety systems shaping modern manufacturing. He will gain first-hand insight into workforce, infrastructure, and cybersecurity policy challenges. The working lunch provides direct industry perspective on balanced repair and data-security policies.

Rep. Mariannette Miller Meeks (IN-06)

Rep. Miller-Meeks was invited because John Deere, Vermeer, Stellar Industries, and WEILER all manufacture equipment in her Iowa district. These companies showcase precision construction, employee-owned manufacturing, and road-building equipment that power local jobs. The tour demonstrates how federal manufacturing and infrastructure policy directly supports Iowa's economy. She will also engage in national policy discussions on repair access, cybersecurity, and equipment innovation.

Ken Clifford, Chief of Staff (IN-06)

Mr. Clifford was invited because the agenda highlights John Deere, Vermeer, Stellar Industries, and WEILER, all located in Rep. Miller-Meeks' district. He will see how automation, diagnostics, and advanced construction technologies are reshaping manufacturing. These demonstrations inform legislative work on workforce, infrastructure, and manufacturing competitiveness. The working lunch offers direct industry input on repair access and cybersecurity.

Rep. Chuck Edwards (NC-11)

Rep. Edwards was invited because the agenda features manufacturers adjacent to his district, including John Deere/Wirtgen in Kernersville and Power Curbers in Salisbury, North Carolina. These companies demonstrate advanced vision systems, paving technologies, and precision construction tools. The tour connects North Carolina manufacturing to national infrastructure priorities. He will also engage in policy discussions on AI, automation, cybersecurity, and jobsite safety.

Rep. Mike Flood (NE-01)

Rep. Flood was invited to CONEXPO-CON/AGG to engage directly with the equipment manufacturers and technology leaders driving America's infrastructure and construction economy. The agenda highlights advanced construction equipment, precision technologies, autonomous systems, and diagnostics that are transforming job sites and supply chains nationwide. These innovations align with Nebraska's strong manufacturing, logistics, and agricultural equipment sectors, which depend on reliable infrastructure and modern construction tools. The working lunch and CEO dinner provide valuable opportunities to discuss workforce, supply chain, and regulatory policies that impact job creators across the Midwest.

Jake Dumas, Chief of Staff (NE-01)

Mr. Dumas was invited to gain first-hand exposure to the technologies and manufacturing processes shaping the future of construction and infrastructure. The agenda offers insight into automation, cybersecurity, equipment repair ecosystems, and data-driven jobsite solutions that influence federal policy decisions. These discussions directly support legislative work related to manufacturing competitiveness, workforce development, and infrastructure investment. The tour provides practical context that will inform Rep. Flood's office as it advances policies supporting job creation and economic growth in Nebraska.

Dan Scharfenberger, Chief of Staff (NJ-07)

Mr. Scharfenberger was invited to CONEXPO-CON/AGG to gain first-hand exposure to the equipment manufacturers and technology leaders driving America's infrastructure and construction economy. The agenda highlights advanced construction equipment, diagnostics, automation, and AI-enabled systems that are reshaping job sites nationwide. These innovations are directly relevant to New Jersey's infrastructure needs and workforce priorities. The tour and policy discussions provide practical insight to inform legislative work on manufacturing competitiveness, infrastructure investment, and regulatory policy.

Ted Verrill, Chief of Staff (LA-05)

Mr. Verrill was invited to CONEXPO-CON/AGG to gain direct exposure to the equipment manufacturers and technology leaders driving America's infrastructure and construction economy. The agenda highlights advanced construction equipment, diagnostics, automation, and AI-enabled systems that are reshaping job sites nationwide. These innovations are especially relevant to Louisiana's infrastructure, energy, and transportation sectors, which rely heavily on modern construction capabilities. The tour and policy discussions provide practical insight to inform legislative work on manufacturing competitiveness, workforce development, and infrastructure investment.

Christopher Hall, Chief of Staff (VA-05)

Mr. Hall was invited to CONEXPO-CON/AGG to gain first-hand exposure to the equipment manufacturers and technology leaders driving America's infrastructure and construction economy. The agenda highlights advanced construction equipment, diagnostics, automation, and AI-enabled systems that are reshaping job sites nationwide. These innovations are directly relevant to Virginia's infrastructure priorities, particularly in rural and growing regions across the Fifth District. The tour and policy discussions provide practical insight to inform legislative work on manufacturing competitiveness, workforce development, and infrastructure investment.

Bryan Wheat, Chief of Staff (UT-02)

Mr. Wheat was invited to CONEXPO-CON/AGG to engage with the technology and manufacturing leaders shaping the future of construction and infrastructure. The agenda showcases autonomous equipment, precision construction tools, and next-generation diagnostics that are transforming job sites. These developments are especially relevant to Utah’s rapid growth and infrastructure demands across the Second District. The tour and policy discussions offer valuable context to support legislative work on workforce, manufacturing competitiveness, and infrastructure investment.

Rep. Celeste Maloy (UT-02)

Rep. Maloy was invited to CONEXPO-CON/AGG to engage directly with the equipment manufacturers and technology leaders shaping the future of construction and infrastructure. The agenda highlights autonomous equipment, precision construction tools, advanced diagnostics, and AI-enabled systems transforming job sites nationwide. These innovations are especially relevant to Utah’s rapid growth and expanding infrastructure needs across the Second District. The tour and policy discussions provide practical insight to support legislative work on manufacturing competitiveness, workforce development, and infrastructure investment.

Brian Calabrese, Chief of Staff (CO-05)

Mr. Calabrese was invited to CONEXPO-CON/AGG to gain direct exposure to the equipment manufacturers and technology leaders driving America’s infrastructure and construction economy. The agenda highlights advanced construction equipment, diagnostics, automation, and AI-enabled systems that are reshaping job sites nationwide. These innovations are especially relevant to Colorado’s growing infrastructure demands and workforce needs across the Fifth District. The tour and policy discussions provide practical insight to inform legislative work on manufacturing competitiveness, workforce development, and infrastructure investment.

12. Republican Main Street Partnership’s Interest in the Subject Matter of the Trip and Role in Organizing and/or Conducting the Trip:

The Republican Main Street Partnership is a coalition of conservatives who get things done. This March, we are excited to be sending four Members of Congress to CONEXPO-CON/AGG, the largest construction trade show in North America. Held in Las Vegas, the convention brings together industry leaders in asphalt, aggregates, concrete, earthmoving, hauling, lifting, trucking, and more. Sending Members of Congress and their staff ensures that our elected officials get firsthand knowledge about the latest technology and innovation in the construction sector.

15(b)(2). The Reasoning for Selecting the Location of the Event or Trip

CONEXPO-CON/AGG is the international gathering place for the construction industries, focusing on construction, aggregates, and ready-mixed concrete. The event features exhibits of the latest technologies and innovations in equipment, products, and services, plus extensive industry-targeted education. It takes place every three years in Las Vegas, Nevada. More than 1,000 education sessions take place for contractors, business owners, construction material producers, and end-users to obtain cutting-edge information for today's challenging economy and business model. Hundreds of industry meetings, including annual conventions of industry associations, are also held in conjunction with the show.

16. Reasons for Selecting Hotel

Closest hotel to the Las Vegas Convention Center with availability and low room rate. Additionally, the Wynn is one of the most secure hotels in Las Vegas, ensuring the safety of Members and Congressional staff.

Flight Schedule:
